

Letter from the NWRD President

HELLO, NWRD MEMBERS!

Northwest Renal Dietitians (NWRD) successfully navigated a fully virtual conference last year as we responded to the COVID-19 pandemic. Our new board of directors is continuing the tradition of bringing novel perspectives to NWRD. An excellent conference is in the works for 2022 with our co-chairs hosting from Idaho for the first time! We look forward to reaching as many Network-16 dietitians (and beyond) as possible to complete our mission. We appreciate the support and participation of our members and hope to continue to provide excellent education opportunities at a great value.

WHAT to EXPECT

THE VIRTUAL EXPERIENCE

We learned so much from our virtual conference last year and we are working on an even more robust NWRD virtual experience for 2022. A decision will be made very soon regarding NWRD hosting a tandem in-person viewing pod alongside the virtual event. By continuing to broadcast virtually, we can host more nationally recognized speakers, reach more attendees, and provide on-demand replays of webinar recordings. Planned are two days of live webinars with an electronic Q+A chat feature and the Poster / Exhibitor Expo Hall.

CALL FOR POSTER PRESENTERS and EXHIBITORS:

We will soon post the 2022 Exhibitor Prospectus to our NWRD website with details on how to participate as a Poster Presenter or Exhibitor. SIGN-UP IS OPEN NOW through DECEMBER 31 at: nwrdonline.org
